By joining SAEWA, I select to be exempted from having to pay the compulsory Collective Bargaining Levy, effectively rendering my SAEWA membership for FREE!

I hereby confirm that I have joined the South African Equity Workers Association (SAEWA) and therefore, I am no longer compelled to contribute the prescribed Collective Bargaining Levy (CBL) to the National Bargaining Council for the Electrical Industry of South Africa (NBCEI) as contemplated in terms of the CBL Agreement. Instead, I hereby instruct my current employer, or any future employer that I may have, to deduct from my wage/salary, my membership subscription fee of R 20.77 per week, or alternatively R 90.00 per month, in favour of SAEWA. Payment of this amount must be made to the NBCEI each month, along with the payment of the usual NBCEI levy payments. Such deductions are made in terms of the provisions of Section 28 of the Main Agreement of the NBCEI, that was published in Government Gazette 48627, under Government Notice 3423, on 19 May 2023, an Agreement to which SAEWA is party to, read together with the provisions of Section 19 of the Labour Relations Act, Act 66 of 1995 as amended. The current membership fee may be amended from time to time, as directed by the National Council of SAEWA.

Resignation From Former Trade Union

I further instruct that this serves as formal notice of my resignation from any other trade union that I may have been a member of and that you should forthwith terminate any further membership fee deductions in favour of any other trade union other than SAEWA, save to deduct the final contribution that relates to my notice period to said former trade union.

I select FREE* SAEWA membership instead of CBL
